

President's Message

On behalf of the Walkerton Agricultural Society, I would like to welcome you to our 156th Walkerton Little Royal Fair, October 15-17, 2010.

Our theme this year is "Flowers, Feathers and Friends." There is something of interest for everyone to enjoy. I invite you to exhibit and participate in many of the planned activities. Activities include Team Penning, Pet Show, and the famous Horse Show on Saturday in the horse palace. Sunday activities include the Farmers' Olympics, Log Sawing, Kids' Pedal Tractor Pull and the Horse Pull Competition. Exhibits can be viewed each day during the fair.

Everyone is invited to come to enjoy the roast beef dinner on Saturday from 5-7p.m. and our breakfast on Sunday morning in Building #2.

A special thank you to our dedicated directors, members, volunteers, sponsors and exhibitors who willing give so much time and energy to make the fair a successful event.

Join us for fun,

Francis Zettler, President

On behalf of the Homecraft Division of the "Walkerton Little Royal Fair", I would like to extend a welcome to our exhibitors and visitors to attend our fair. Our theme is "Flowers, Feathers & Friends". This theme will be incorporated in many of the classes in our book. I invite everyone to visit our hall to view school displays, crafts, flowers, canning, baking, quilts and sewing. We also have several group displays, check them out and see why you think of the placing.

I want to thank all my committee members for making the 2010 fair one of the best, The homecraft division are famous for preparing one of the best "Bruce County Roast Beef Dinners" to be held on Saturday night from 5 to 7 pm. No tickets required, just come to the front of building #2. Don't forget breakfast on Sunday morning from 9:30 to 12 Noon. We encourage everyone, rural and urban alike to come to our fair and have a fun filled weekend.

Joan Wilhelm, Homecraft President 2010

Welcome to the Walkerton Little Royal Fair. Each year it is a challenge to come up with new ideas for our fair. We try to keep the favorite activities that keep you coming back to the fair each year but we also want to encourage more people to come and see what we are all about. I would like to encourage you to show us your talents by entering in the various categories, whether you are a baker, seamstress, enjoy crafts or have a green thumb. Come and enjoy our Walkerton Little Royal Fair!
